

Life's Journey

No matter where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here!

We are a gathering of thoughtful and caring people from multiple backgrounds; we believe in embracing and celebrating the love of God, and in dedicating ourselves to the just of examples of Christ Jesus. We value the Spirit that brings illumination and wisdom into our world.

You're always invited to participate in worship, prayer and service with no pressure to join by membership.